Film Reviews: Dead Genesis (2009) - By Jason S. Lockard
Posted on Wednesday, April 03, 2013 @ 13:53:18 Mountain Daylight Time by Duane Zombies are all the rage! It seems everyone with a camera and a couple of friends want to make a zombie film! With all the zombie films out there very rarely do you find a 'Night of the Living Dead' or 'The Walking Dead'.

Dead Genesis follows the world about seven months since the dead changed the world! Many are joining together for a 'War on Dead'. Jillian Hurst, has set out to make a pro-war propaganda film to support the War on Dead. The world that we once knew is now controlled by the zombies. The War is told through the words of those that are living it!

Dead Genesis has the most disturbing introduction to a zombie film that I've ever scene, but the movie I feel just didn't deliver like I hoped it would have. The DVD not only features a great quality version of the film, but also has a good amount of bonus features, including 2
