You better be bored if you're going to waste any money on this week's Horror In Your House. While there are a few indie films worth picking up for a lackluster weekend (Basement Jack, Evolution), you might want to save those pennies for Lionsgate's Blu-ray onslaught next week. Below you'll find the DVD/Blu-ray release for this Tuesday, November 17th.

HORROR IN YOUR HOUSE November 17, 2009

BASEMENT JACK: Brink

Karen Cook was your average high school student... until the night evil invaded her life. She would soon be known as the lone survivor of a seven-day killing spree perpetrated by a seventeen year old boy the world would come to call "Basement Jack". For the next eleven years, Karen Cook lived in fear that one day Basement Jack would be released. Then, a court hearing in 2006 found that Jack Riley had not received a fair trial and he was released from a state institution. A year later, murders baring a shocking resemblance to Basement Jack's old MO were occurring around the town of Downer's Grove. Karen Cook soon realized that the maniac was hunting her and that the only option left to her was to find Jack and kill him. So the hunt began. And on a stormy night, in the town of Downer's Grove, the killer and his prey would hunt and fight one another, as the citizens would have to survive the blade of... Basement Jack Evil has a new address... Yours!

CALL OF THE HUNTER: R Squared

In the summer of 1962, three teenagers went on a camping trip into Herongate Woods. What started out as a fun trip ended in a nightmare as one of the boys met with a tragic death. The other two escaped, but could only relay a tale of a hooded and horned man who terrorized them. Forty years later, one of the survivors meets with a mysterious and tragic death and the only survivor returns to the scene of the original incident with a documentary crew. As members of the crew die in horrible circumstances the survivors are on a desperate search to find what the spirit of the forest wants before it's too late!

THE CANYON: Magnolia/Magnet

Honeymooners Nick and Lori head off to the Grand Canyon for adventure and time alone together. Upon arriving, they hire Henry as their guide, who seems to have his own idea about the outdoor excursion. When tragedy strikes, the newlyweds must fend for themselves. Discovering they are prey being hunted by something or someone, they desperately fight for survival to escape the canyon alive.

 A colorful horror film making festival waves...

EVOLUTION: Brink

A microscopic alien life form has been discovered with the ability to possess the living and resurrect the dead. The United States Army has tried to communicate with it but failed. Instead, the military has tried to create a genetically altered version of the alien in order to resurrect dead soldiers on the battlefield. The alien fights back, turning soldier against soldier. Young scientist Darren Hall kidnaps the last pure specimen of the alien, determined to the reverse the damage inflicted and learn the secrets of life. Hiding in a mysterious building named The Necropolitan, he continues his experiments. On one fateful night, the alien is set loose on the unsuspecting tenants resulting in a new evolution of apocalyptic horror as infected tenants attack the unsuspecting, turning them into a cannibal horde. Darren and a small group of survivors must now find a way to destroy the alien possessed before they can escape into the city and bring forth the end of the human race.

HANGER: Viscous Circle Films

From Ryan Nicholson, the acclaimed writer-director of the cult hit Gutterballs, comes this gruesome horror tale in which revenge is sweet and sick and twisted and definitely served cold a balls-to-the-wall story of vengeance and murder that rises to new heights of perverse action and macabre behavior. Eighteen years ago, nine-months-pregnant Rose, a wrong-side-of-the-tracks prostitute, was killed when her pimp gave her an abortion with a hanger. Now, the deformed, surviving child, who was thrown in the dumpster, left for dead and mockingly called Hanger, is about to settle the score and any street trash, sex degenerate of murderous pimp better beware.

PENANCE: IMD Films

Penance is the tale of a young, demure single mother, Amelia, who hits upon hard times and decides to take her future into her own hands and becomes a stripper. Everything is going well until Suzy, her stripper friend, is beaten up on a job and recruits Amelia to take her place. Reluctantly, Amelia takes the job, only to find the job isn't everything it seems. Driven to a strange location by a dark and mysterious, and confronted by a grizzled hit man, Amelia's world is turned upside down, as her captor, is intent on one thing and one thing only - to purify Amelia and the other women in his incarceration.

RITUALS: Code Red

Mitzi invites a fellow Doctor Harry and two other doctors to go on a camping trip in middle of nowhere in the Canadian mountain. They thought there were alone, but not knowing someone is watching them. A Harmless trip turns into a nightmare and murder as the psychopath plays a deadly psychological game of survival.

TAINTLIGHT: Splatter Rampage

TAINTLIGHT is the tale of Stella, a young girl who falls in love with an ancient, beautifully-bedhaired bloodsucker named Edgar. They struggle to stay together in the midst of vampire carnage, but a love triangle bubbles up when a Michael Jackson-loving werewolf named Jack comes forward professing his own love for Stella. Meanwhile, a rival group of "real" vampires led by the evil Razor McBleed are on the prowl, looking to put the stake to Edgar so they can feast on Stella and the rest of Bonejack Heights in this over the top horror parody with tongue firmly in cheek!

THANKSKILLING: Broad Daylight Pictures

An evil turkey is unleashed...and he's one "fowl" mouthed bastard! Five college kids heading home for Thanksgiving break cross paths with the turkey, who's possessed by an ancient Indian curse. In this hilariously gory spoof, the teens must stop the maniac bird before he kills them all!

VAMPIRE PARTY: Dark Sky Films

When the French make a horror/gore comedy, you know things are going to get extremely rude! Best friends and hardcore partiers Sam, Alice and Prune have scored invitations to Medici Night , the legendary VIP bash held every year at a remote castle. But when they discover that this wild party is being thrown by an elite race of blood-crazed vampires, they ll have to stake, stab, slice, bludgeon and blast their way out of a soiree where the hosts are thirsty and the bar is now open. Is it in bad taste to massacre a horde of undead guests even if they are a total pain in the neck?

If the movies are so bad this week, why not read a good scary book. There are a lot around. Most people like Steven King, and he has a new one out. I just finished Annie'd Gift by Holden Herbert and really liked it. Yeah, plenty of stuff to keep you up at night.

HANGER was ABSOLUTE crap. Maybe the worst movie Ive seen all year. There's nothing worse when "critically acclaimed" gets thrown in there to show you how a bunch of morons found quality in this. GUTTERBALLS was shit too. Dont waste your time. Make your own movie, and call it "critically acclaimed"... it'll be better
