I AM VIRGIN

Rating: 5 stars!

Another indie horror movie, another low budget, crappy looking movie..right? WRONG! I Am Virgin, a cool end of times Vampire flick is a partial spoof on I Am Legend with a twist...the last virgin on earth is being seduced by a crap load o' hot stripper vampires who will do ANYTHING to get the movie's lead, Adam Davis, to have sex with them. There's tons o' nudity, sex scenes, & I'll admit how much of a dork I truly am...there's a few sex scenes that, well, look faked, so I paused one particular scene & what I noticed was that the naked males penis was NOT inside the sexy vamp., so some of the "penetration" scenes were faked, although I'd bet some of them were definitely real! Ron Jeremy has a small cameo & he doesn't get naked, but his scene is funny none the less! There's some cool behind the scenes featurettes that tell about the making of the movie & for the most part, the lovely vampire women in the flick were local hotties who wanted to be in a horror movie & didn't mind gettin' naked to do it! I've noted that over the past few years, the b-horror movies are getting better & better...the sound & the video quality on this movie are pro quality...the acting is not bad, I mean, it's a b-horror movie, other than Ron Jeremy, there's NO stars in this flick, yet it's as interesting to watch as ANY current horror movie out there, BUT, I'll be the first to say, this movie is NOT for young children...there's ALOT o' nakedness, ALOT o' sex, & the movie offers a unique mix of porn & vampires if you will, BUT, this is NOT a porn by any means, this is a horror movie with alot o' sex!
