Giveaway – The Monster and the Ape DVD – 2 Winners – Ends 8/27/10

August 15, 2010

The Monster and the Ape DVD

MVD Entertainment
Street date 7/27/10

Description: At the Bainbridge Research Foundation, Professor Franklin Arnold displays his creation, a robot called the Metalogen Man, to Professor Ernst and three other colleagues. Shortly afterward, the three associates are killed by Thor, a huge ape trained by Ernst. Professor Arnold, his daughter Babs and Ken Morgan, a representative of the company for whom the robot was made, find the Metalogen Man has been stolen. Their thrilling 15-chapter search for Thor, the robot (Played by Ray Corrigan) and Ernst leads to a series of cliff-hanging adventures as Ernst strives to gain control of the robot and the supply of metalogen needed for its production. Original theatrical trailer included!

This is a classic serial. And I understand that it was originally meant to be a tense thriller, but I find it pretty hilarious.

It's predictable with it's 'scary' special effects (sinister music, lighting and camera angles) and the robot is not realistic, but that's what makes The Monster and the Ape entertaining.

The 15 chapters are 450 minutes long so you'll have hours of fun, classic entertainment.
