Blues icon Lucky Peterson scores again with 'I'm Back Again'

'I'm Back Again'

Lucky Peterson (Blues Boulevard)

4 stars out of 5

A fixture on the blues scene since scoring a hit single ("1-2-3-4") at age 5, Lucky Peterson has dozens of albums to his name. Earlier this year, Peterson delivered one of his best platters in years ("The Son of a Bluesman") and he wasted little time serving up scorching live set "I'm Back Again."

Recorded in Berlin in August 2012, Peterson offers up a nice 11-track mix of originals and covers on the 73-minute slab. The sublime title track gets the party started, and Peterson further scores with a sprawling eight-minute rendition of Ray LaMontagne's "Trouble," Willie Dixon's "I'm Ready" and Robert Johnson classics "I Believe I'll Dust My Broom" and "The World Is In a Tangle." Modern blues don't get much better than this. (Jeffrey Sisk)
