Quick Hits & Clips: Eye Alaska, Lido Beach, Iggy Pop, Black Gold, Handsome Furs

- Eye Alaska heads into the studio this week to begin recording their debut full-length album with world renowned producer Matt Wallace. Wallace has produced hit songs for Maroon5, Sheryl Crow, and REM. The band will be recording in Wallace's southern California studio. This record, which will be the follow up to their EP "Yellow & Elephant," is scheduled for release in summer 2009.
- Lido Beach have uploaded a new and unreleased song called "I Love How Brilliant You Think You Are." The song is free for download on their MySpace and PureVolume pages.
- Zeit1 have announced the February 10th release of Iggy Pop's "Lust For Life." This DVD was filmed in 1986 when Pop was enjoying a successful period with the release of the Blah Blah Blah album and the hit single Real Wild Child. The film captures Pop on the tour and away from the stage for a series of interviews that cover his career up to that moment in time. Stooges guitarist Ron Asheton is also interviewed and like Pop goes into detail concerning The Stooges and their perception of why the band split. Filled with exclusive interview and archive footage, some of which has never been seen. This film paints a full picture of one of rock music's enduring talents.
- Brooklyn's Black Gold had a big 2008 with the release of two EPs and a highly-touted US tour with Jaguar Love and Polysics, and they're ramping up for an even bigger 2009 with their debut album, Rush, hitting stores February 3rd. To celebrate the new year, the band is giving out an exclusive, never-released remix of "Detroit" from famed producer Arthur Baker (New Order). To grab the remix, just sign up for the band's official mailing list. As an additional bonus, check out some footage from the band's adventures on the road last year, including Halloween in NYC and getting literally chased out of Montreal, all set to new track "Breakdown."
