You Really Got Me: The Story of the Kinks

(ABC)

There's enough vintage Kinks klips here to make up for the dumb-ass programming. Seriously, why show the entire "Do It Again" video but only a few seconds of the band playing "The Village Green Preservation Society" live on TV in the late '60s? It's a thorough history lesson too. But what's with Ray Davies' Pee-wee Herman suit during the '80s concert scenes?
