Rolling Stones... A collection of rare footage you won't find elsewhere! Features original rare film and videos of the band, newsreels and photographs from private collections...In "Rare and Unseen", we take an inside look at the sheer audacity of the band that took R&B and made it into mainstream rock. From small time band to megastar rockers, The Stones have had an immeasurable impact in the music world. They played, they recorded and they conquered the planet for five decades. This brand new DVD release is a collection of rare footage you won't find elsewhere. Features original rare film and videos of the band, newsreels and photographs from private collections. Including Mick Jagger on British investigative TV series "World in Action", Keith Richards at the Berlin Film Festival, Charlie Watts with some rare soundbites, Bill Wyman talks tours and life, rare footage of Brian Jones, unseen interview footage from Belfast 1964, rare and unseen footage of each of the band members talking, local TV reports thought lost and now restored and nostalgic tour footage...

The Kinks...Of all the "British Invasion" bands that broke through commercially in America, The Kinks stood head and shoulders above all others as being quintessentially English. This DVD contains some of the Kinks finest moments and is full of rarely seen performances from the sixties through the nineties with comments from band members including Ray Davies, Dave Davies and Mick Avory. Some of the performances featured here include You really Got Me, 'Til The End Of The Day, Waterloo Sunset, Days, Celluloid Heroes and many more including the Dave Davies hit single Death Of A Clown. Footage comes from live concerts and television performances and will merely reinforce what many people already know...The Kinks were one of the most important and most loved bands of the last forty plus years...Contains some of The Kinks finest moments plus rarely seen performances from the 60s to the 90s...

We Fun...WE Fun: Atlanta GA Inside/Out is the 2009 documentary about the indie rock scene that recently exploded out of Atlanta, GA. From the producers of the cult classic Athens GA Inside/Out, We Fun features the Black Lips, Deerhunter, King Khan & the Shrines and more performing tracks from their groundbreaking albums. Featured on Pitchfork Media's One Week Only in 2009, We Fun is an important piece of music history, both as a companion to the original Athens documentary as well as a stand alone film about the new music business on the new musical horizon...An inside/out look at how a small town scene becomes a worldwide phenomenon...

I Need That Record...Guerilla filmmaker Brendan Toller unleashes I NEED THAT RECORD! THE DEATH (OR POSSIBLE SURVIVAL) OF THE INDEPENDENT RECORD STORE, "an elegy for a vanishing subculture...a lively, bittersweet film that examines - with caustic humor, brutal candor, and, ultimately, great affection - why roughly 3,000 indie record stores have closed across the nation over the past decade," . A tour-de-force tale of greed, media consolidation, homogenized radio, big box stores, downloading, and technological shifts in the music industry told through candid interviews, crestfallen record store owners, startling statistics, and eye-popping animation. Fat cats or our favorite record stores? You decide. Featuring- IAN MACKAYE, NOAM CHOMSKY, MIKE WATT, THURSTON MOORE, LENNY KAYE (Patti Smith), CHRIS FRANTZ (Talking Heads), GLENN BRANCA, PATTERSON HOOD (Drive By Truckers), PAT CARNEY (Black Keys) , LEGS MCNEIL, BOB GRUEN, BP HELIUM, and many indie record stores across the U.S...A feature documentary examining why over 3,000 independent record stores have closed across the U.S. in the past decade...IF YOU LOVE MUSIC AND WHAT'S BEHIND THE MUSIC THEN YOU WILL LOVE ALL FOUR OF THESE GREAT DOCUMENTARIES. THESE ARE SOME OF THE BEST DOC'S I HAVE EVER HAD THE PLEASURE TO WATCH AND REVIEW. SOME COME IN 16X9 AND SOME COME IN FULL FRAME, BUT WHAT EVER THEY COME IN THEY'RE JUST TERRIFIC.
