CEASE AND DESIST: Re: Django, Directed by Sergio Corbucci, (the "Picture")

Dear Amazon Copyright Department:

I represent Blue Underground, Inc., the United States and Canadian copyright owner of the Picture. My client was assigned the U.S Copyright and the GATT restoration United States Copyright PA-1-395-147 for the Picture, as well as all Canadian rights, as part of the settlement of Case No 2:14-cv-01343-GW-PJW, Blue Underground, Inc. v. First Line Films, Inc. Attached is the original copyright and the assignment.

My client is the United States and Canadian copyright owner of the Picture. Surf has illegally licensed the Picture to Arrow for distribution in the United States and Canada. Blue Underground has been severely damaged by Surf's and Arrow's illegal activity. Demand is made to immediately cease and desist all activities associated with licensing or distributing the Picture in the United States and Canada. If you do not comply with the cease and desist demands herein, my client will be forced to start all legal steps to safeguard Blue Underground's rights in the Picture. A copy of a draft complaint is being prepared. The complaint has not yet been filed, in the hope that a resolution can be reached. If, however, no compromise or resolution is reached, the complaint will be filed in United States Federal Court.

Nothing contained in the letter is a waiver of any rights, remedies or other relief. All rights, remedies and other relief are expressly reserved against the individuals and entities listed in this cease and desist correspondence.
