CLASSIC CULT FILMS IN DEFINITIVE EDITIONS

WELCOME TO ARROW VIDEO

For almost eight years, Arrow Video have been sourcing and releasing the very best in cult and horror films in deluxe, definitive editions with newly commissioned artwork, specially curated extras and booklets.

Starting as an offshoot label to Arrow Films in 2009, the Award-winning UK collection now spans more than 350 releases including films from David Cronenberg, Dario Argento, John Carpenter and Wes Craven.

NOW AVAILABLE IN THE US & CANADA

In March 2015, Arrow Video released its first two titles in the US: Michael Armstrong's 70s witch hunt horror Mark of the Devil and the classic 60s Western Day of Anger starring Lee van Cleef. In the two years since our initial launch, we have been steadily growing and now have almost 100 titles in our US catalogue, with recent releases Donnie Darko Limited Edition and House: Two Stories gaining both strong commercial and critical response.

We hope you enjoy taking a look through this May 2017 catalogue detailing all our current titles, plus forthcoming releases, including a deluxe release of Dario Argento's The Bird with the Crystal Plume in June and Stuart Gordon's Re-Animator in July.

Happy collecting, TEAM ARROW!

BOX SETS

Our box sets of film franchises and sets devoted to specific filmmakers are regular Award-winners. In late 2015, we released Kinji Fukasaku's Battles Without Honor & Humanity (now sold out, although the films are available in separate releases), and Volume 1 of the American Horror Project featuring three rarely-seen US independent horror titles. Stand by for a Volume 2 announcement later this year.

2016 saw the acclaimed release of Female Prisoner Scorpion: The Complete Collection, plus two high-end box sets featuring 16 films from the Godfather of Gore, Herschell Gordon Lewis. If you're a fan of the Hellraiser series, then you don't want to miss out on Hellraiser: The Scarlet Box, featuring the first three films in stunning packaging with numerous previously-unseen extras.

ARROW BOOKS

But it's not just DVD and Blu-ray releases...

Last year we released our first Hardbook book - CULT CINEMA: AN ARROW VIDEO COMPANION - in both the UK and the US and this proved to be such a success that we have recently embarked on a whole new range of ARROW BOOKS.

Our first books focus on a couple of hugely influential cult films and the works of one incredibly endearing cult icon, as Tom Mes essays the career of Meiko Kaji, Russ Gomm looks back on The Blair Witch Project, whilst Andrew Osmond digs into the original anime Ghost in the Shell.

Just like our DVDs and Blu-rays, Arrow Books will feature brand new cover artwork and will be the same size as Blu-ray cases so they can stack right alongside your Arrow collection. Our first three book releases are as follows...

Plus, stay tuned for even more news later in 2017 in the shape of ARROW RECORDS. Fully remastered, and featuring new artwork and liner notes, our vinyl releases will include Roberto Nicolosi's score for Black Sunday and Stelvio Cipriani's Death Walks on High Heels plus many more to be announced soon.

ARROW ACADEMY

In March of this year, we also launched our sister label - ARROW ACADEMY - in the US and Canada.

Representing films from the golden era of Hollywood, through to World Cinema classics and the very best in contemporary filmmaking, each release is presented from the finest film materials, working directly with filmmakers and around the world to ensure faithful replication of the original artistic intent.

Like ARROW VIDEO, all releases are accompanied with booklets featuring classic writing, plus newly commissioned artwork and brand new bonus features.

Initial releases include the stunning Theatrical and Director's cuts of Cinema Paradiso, and classic genre films such as Property Is No Longer a Theft, The Assassin and Spotlight on a Murderer.
