Supersuckers will release their ninth album, Get The Hell, on January 27, the band have confirmed.

It's their first studio record since 2008's Get It Together and their first with drummer Captain Von Streicher, who joined in 2012. And frontman Eddie Spaghetti is delighted to have fought his way through "many delays and unfortunate setbacks" to deliver the record.

He says of the 13-track disc: "The Supersuckers have no business being this good after all these years – it's as brutal and as polished as the band has ever sounded. This is the Supersuckers at their meanest, most ferocious, and still at the top of their game in the songwriting department. This record is a juggernaut front to back."

New label Steamhammer/SPV say: "Opening track Get The Hell fires a warning shot with Spaghetti offering his road-weary wisdom – 'When you're staring down the mouth of this unruly beast / You might crap your pants or wet 'em at the very least.'

“Then they spin tales of romantic debauchery (High Tonight), biblically-proportioned excess (Gluttonous), hard-boiled obsession (Something About You) and the trials and tribulations of being a total fuck up (Fuck Up).

“Never ones to shy away from a good (and completely unexpected) cover song, the Suckers exhibit their sonic dominance tackling Depeche Mode’s popular Never Let Me Down Again.”

Get The Hell will be available as a CD digipak, download, and limited-edition coloured vinyl with bonus track Apologies.

I've been waiting for this a long time. Saw 'em last November (2012) and they played 3 of the new songs. Still kickin' ass. Look forward to seeing them for a sixth time.
