Get ready for the cheapie Cult Classic Basket Case - Limited Edition (Arrow Video BD) that has made its way to big box office restoration from a print found in NoMA- a 4K restoration by the Museum of Modern Art! The classic stars Kevin Van Hentenryck (Actor), Terri Susan Smith (Actor), and horror fan collector Frank Henenlotter, who made stop-motion amateur animation films, became a herald first-time Director! Here's the Scoop: "the tenant in Room 7 is very small, very twisted, and very mad!" The feature debut of director Frank Henenlotter (Brain Damage, Frankenhooker), 1982's Basket Case is perhaps his most revered - a riotous and blood-spattered midnight movie experience, now immortalized in a lavish new 4K restoration by the Museum of Modern Art (MoMA). Tall and scrawny Duane Bradley (Van Hentenryck) is a pretty ordinary guy. His formerly conjoined twin Belial, on the other hand, is a deformed, fleshy lump whom he carries around in a wicker basket. Arriving in the Big Apple and taking up a room at the seedy Hotel Broslin, the pair set about hunting down and butchering the surgeons responsible for their separation. But tensions flare up when Duane starts spending time with a pretty blonde secretary, and Belial's homicidal tendencies reach bloody new extremes. Filmed on a shoestring budget against the backdrop of 1980s New York (where the movie would become a staple of the infamous 42nd Street grindhouse circuit), Basket Case has clawed its way from its humble origins to become one of the most celebrated cult movies of all time. The film is creepy and innovative for its time. All the cast were friends of Henenlotter and what's amazing about this restoration, is the featurette of the Cast reunion at NoMA to watch and reminisce about this historic film. Special Bonus Includes: Basket Case 3-1/2: An Interview with Duane Bradley - Frank Henenlotter revisits Duane Bradley decades after the events of the original Basket Case, Seeing Double: The Basket Case Twins - a brand new interview with Florence and Maryellen Schultz, the twin nurses from Basket Case, Brand new making-of featurette containing new interviews with producer Edgar Ievins, casting person/actress Ilze Balodis, associate producer/effects artist Ugis Nigals and Belial performer Kika Nigals, Blood, Basket and Beyond - a brand new interview with actress Beverly Bonner, Belial Goes to the Drive-In - a brand new interview with film critic Joe Bob Briggs, Plus Outtakes Featurette, and more!

Pastor Paul

IndiePix Films

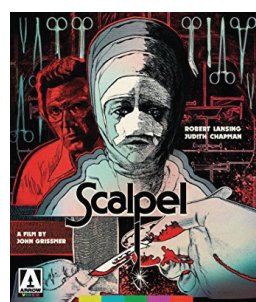

Holy cow! After being cast in a ramshackled Nollywood movie, a white American tourist is possessed by a ghost in this charming micro-budget version of "Hamlet" comedy set in West Africa that's entitled Pastor Paul (IndiePix films DVD). Here is a strange film that multi-hyphenate director/writer/actor Jules David Bartkowski calls "the world's first American Nollywood film!" PASTOR PAUL explores the remarkable confluence of New African Cinema, Christianity and Witchcraft; and undermines the classic symbolic imagery of the white man in Africa, whether he be tourist, missionary, actor, or ghost. Benjamin (played by Bartkowski), a geeky mathematician researching 'rhythms' of African drumming, accepts a movie role and then is stricken with seizures and speaks in tongues, horrifying the crew through inadvertently giving the director exactly what he wanted. Now will Benjamin be able to rid himself of this strange spiritual malady in time for the movie premiere? Filmed in Ghana and Nigeria in 2013 on a micro-budget, Pastor Paul was the result of a guerilla-style international co-production with Pidgeon Films. Pastor Paul is a homage to the spirit - and the spirits - of Nollywood's self-determined narratives. Bonus features include: Trailer.

Scapel

MVDVisual
