"Behind the XXX"—making porn

Amos Lassen

Now that pornography is almost mainstream, there have been several movies made about what goes on behind the scenes. This is the fourth of this kind that I have reviewed. There is something about the lure of pornography that pulls us in and I suspect it has to do with the performers. Here we get to look behind the scenes. This DVD is made up of interviews with some of the most popular professional porn stars as well as with nine amateurs.

However, I must note that this film deals only with female porn stars and although we see everything of them, there is no male frontal nudity. The women we see here are Jada Fire, Trina Michaels and Raquel Devine. Is this not porn as well? I suppose you can say that but it is a step up from just porn as it shows us what really goes on behind the scenes.
