· Behind The XXX (2010) (Brookland Bros.)

The Short Version: A behind-the-scenes look at the porn industry. You what?

The Slightly-Elongated Version: As if edited "Cable TV" versions of hardcore adult movies weren't enough to make you question what the world is coming to, we now have "Behind-the-Scenes Cable TV" DVD releases. Sure, there's nudity, but when you want the real deal, this most certainly shall not suffice. I'm sure the tweens that kipe it from the video store's shelves might appreciate it, though. Bonus trailers for a couple of other forgettable softcore flicks are included as extras.

· Caged Animal (2010) (Phase 4 Films)

The Short Version: Yes, kids: it's another b-movie starring Ving Rhames.

The Slightly-Elongated Version: Honestly, somebody should just hand over the late John Carradine's crown over to Ving Rhames now, since he is all-but-officially the official King of B-Movie Actors. In Caged Animal (originally known as The Wrath Of Cain), Rhames stars as a tough guy sentenced to life in the big house — a fate truly worse than death, especially when we discover that another b-movie legend, Robert Patrick, is the warden! The great Robert LaSardo co-stars as another lifer who just happens to be Cain's archenemy. Although it has been retitled and marketed as an "action" flick, Caged Animal is really nothing more than a low-budget drama from Ryan Combs, the genius behind such classics as I Accidentally Domed Your Son and Animal 2 (also starring King Rhames). The title is also available on Blu-ray for some reason.

Good-bad, bad-bad; it's all bound to please someone out there somehow.

Happy viewing, kids!
