Punk, rock and something that Tastes Like

Gina Vivinetto

We do lots of pop culture research here at Mr. Brady Is Gay, with super-scientific data. We use surveys, pie charts, complicated math. An abacus (once). Mostly, we think we look cool in lab coats.

Anyway, this week we know what's out there!

DVD(s): Hey, ho, let's go! Ramones freaks, we can't get back Joey, Johnny or Dee Dee, but we can sit in our homes and view End of the Century: The Story of the Ramones (Warner Bros. $19.98), the rambunctious account of America's premiere punk band.

From cartoony Queens youths with Prince Valiant hairdos, three chords and bad attitudes to recipients of a 2002 induction into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame, these bruders from the gutter changed the music industry. An interview with Joey's mom and plenty of live footage from inside the (soon-to-be-doomed?) CBGB take us closer than we deserve.

- Ever wish you could have shadowed the young Bob Dylan, at right, when he was on tour? Bob Dylan World Tours 1966-1974

Through the Camera of Barry Feinstein (Music Video Distribution, $14.95) lets you live your dream. Feinstein was the tour photographer on Dylan's legendary 1966 and 1974 tours with the Band. With director Joel Gilbert, Feinstein captures music history. In the years in between, Gilbert visits photos of Dylan in Greenwich Village and Woodstock, even recreating his famous 1966 motorcycle accident.

Get raw: For three measly bucks you can celebrate the end of another fantastic season of local acoustic music from the State Theatre's "In the Raw" series at Wednesday's (4/20) star-studded finale. Performers include Rebekah Pulley, series co-organizer Joran Oppelt (Auditorium), Tina Louise (Knowing Stu), Twitch, Ronny Elliott, Scott Harrell (who debuted the excellent full-band version of Nessie at the ACL Club's recent Swap Meet), Christina Wagner and Dean Johanesen of the Human Condition. 8 p.m., 687 Central Ave. St. Pete. (727) 895-3045.

Quote: Surrealist painter Salvador Dali, in what's regarded as the world's shortest speech, once stood, said, "I will be so brief I have already finished," and returned to his seat.

'Zine of the week: If Tastes Like Chicken isn't the most hilarious new periodical out there, what is? This month's issue, its fourth, features cover boy comedian/actor David Cross of Arrested Development and Mr. Show fame. It also features interviews with hip-hop artist Lateef (Latyrx, the Maroons), the Dillinger Escape Plan and singer Mike Patton (Faith No More, Mr. Bungle, Tomahawk).

Aside from interviewing interesting people (past issues featured Tin Hat Trio, skateboarder Tony Hawk, WWE freak Mick Foley and hip-hop's Chief Xcel of Blackalicious and the Maroons), the Chicken staff writes satire and fiction and provides its own art, photography and comics. The tone is decidedly irreverent, a combo of Mad and the Onion (in fact, this month's issue takes a swipe at the Onion).
