Do You Believe in Evilution?

BrinkDVD Chris Conlee DVD News Evilution Zombies

Never mind that whole "we are descended from monkeys" business, we're talking about evil here, folks, and as anyone here on the net can tell you, that means serious business! Especially when pertaining to flesh-eating zombies who are out to ravage the planet.

Director Chris Conlee (who served as editor on the last great Sasquatch flick, Abominable) dropped us a line tonight to let us know that the trailer for his directorial debut Evilution is now online and waiting for you to sink your choppers into. If you like what you see that's even better because it's hitting home video on Nov. 17th, 2009 from BrinkDVD.

For more dig on the trailer below and visit the official Evilution website here!
