EVILUTION

Rating: 6 stars!

Usually, indie horror flicks are 1/2 assed, shoddy at best, are chock full o' gratuitous nudity & all the other cliché's that make the genre so predictable, BUT, with the new film Evilution, which just came out on DVD, this is NOT the case! The theme of the movie is that the living dead are created in a twisted Army experiment...the government gets wind of it & drops a bomb on the entire area, literally, destroying everything...or atleast that's what they thought! However, one of the scientists escaped & winds up back in the USA living in a run down basement apartment, if you wanna call it that...it's the creepiest living area EVER, & one of the cast members from the Showtime show "Weeds" is a co-star, as well as Camp Freddy leader Billy Morrison, who plays a crack-using bum in the movie! I won't give away the ending, but, this movie is well written, it's shot really good, the cinematic effects are low budget, but it all works regardless & I'll go out on a limb & say that this is the best indie-horror flick EVER! The saddest fact is that the female sex symbol in the movie really never gets naked!
