BASEMENT JACK was directed by Michael Shelton whose work has included visual effects on such blockbuster films as Transformers, Terminator Salvation, and the horror films Mirrors, and The Exorcism of Emily Rose. Shelton now brings his visual talents to the helm of BASEMENT JACK, critics and fans agree that his attention to story and detail is stunning. The film stars Eric Peter Kaiser (Miracle, Evilution), Lynn Lowry (The Craziest, Shivers, Cat People), scream queen Tiffany Shepis (Dark Ride, Night of the Demons), Noel G (Gamer, Bruce Almighty), Billy Morrison from the rock band The Cult & Camp Freddy, and fan favorite Nathan Bexton (Go) as the Manager. BASEMENT JACK is headed for DVD on November 17th for the first time in all its silvery-blade, blood-splatter glory, with special features and commentary horror fans kill for time and time again.

Synopsis:

Karen Cook was your average high school student... until the night evil invaded her life. She would become the lone survivor of a seven-day killing spree perpetrated by a seventeen year old boy the world would come to call "Basement Jack". For the next eleven years, Karen Cook lived in fear that one day Basement Jack would be released. Her worst nightmare comes true, when Jack Riley is discharged from a state institution due to an unfair hearing. A year later, murders bearing a shocking resemblance to Basement Jack's old MO begin occurring in the town of Downer's Grove. Karen soon realizes that the maniac is hunting her and that the only option is to find Jack and kill him. So on a stormy night, the hunt begins. The citizens of Downer's Grove will witness the final battle between good and evil as they fight to survive the bloody blade of... Basement Jack.
