

LEE "SCRATCH" PERRY - Master Piece

Cracking release from Mr Perry which grew out of a ground breaking EP released in 2010. Some may argue that many of the tracks are just remixes of three numbers but that would be giving this album a great disservice as Lee Perry is a master at what he does. Whatever this man seems to touch just end in magic! Maybe I should let him touch my bank account. Seriously though there's some wicked tunes on here including 'Soul Man', 'Mr Upsetter (Dancehall Fusion Mix)', 'Medusa Dub' and 'Master Piece'. This album is well worthy of a listen and I for one hope you enjoy what is offered on here. 9/10
