American Horror Project: Volume 2

★★★★★

Surprise! MVD continues to unearth the very best in weird and wonderful horror obscura from the golden age of U.S. Independent genre movie-making! Unveiling now is American Horror Project: Volume 2 (MVD Blu-ray) – a three-disc Limited Edition Collection! This set is a must for budding movie makers and a complete set of (composition) shots that actually shows how to make movies on a budget before CGI. It is valuable info and also entertaining! It's the American Horror Project series co-curated by author Stephen Thrower (Nightmare USA: The Untold Story of the Exploitation Independents). Starting off with a little-seen 1970 offering from underrated cult auteur John Hayes (Grave of the Vampire, Garden of the Dead), Dream No Evil is a haunting, moving tale of a young woman's desperate quest to be reunited with her long-lost father only to find herself drawn into a fantasyland of homicidal madness. Meanwhile, 1976's Dark August stars Academy Award-winner Kim Hunter (A Streetcar Named Desire) in a story of a man pursued by a terrifying and deadly curse in the wake of a hit-and-run accident. Lastly, 1977's Harry Novak-produced The Child is a gloriously delirious slice of horror mayhem in which a young girl raises an army of the dead against the people she holds responsible for her mother's death. With all three films having been newly remastered from the best surviving film elements and appearing here for the first time ever on Blu-ray, alongside a wealth of supplementary material, American Horror Project Volume Two offers up yet another fascinating and blood-chilling foray into the deepest, darkest corners of stars-and-stripes terror. BONUS: Brand new 2K restorations from original film elements, Original uncompressed PCM mono audio, Reversible sleeves for each film featuring original and newly-commissioned artwork by The Twins of Evil, and the "Prize" includes a fabulous American Horror Project Journal Vol. II limited edition 60-page booklet featuring new writing on the films by Stephen R. Bissette, Travis Crawford and Amanda Reyes. Get the Boxed Set, watch and turn on your video camera and make a masterpiece for the New Orleans Film Festival this October!

The New York Ripper

The New York Ripper, the three-disc Limited Edition (Blue Movement Underground Blu-ray) stars Jack

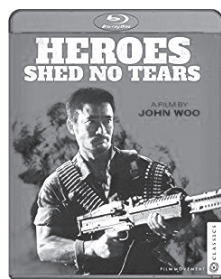

Hedley and Almanta Keller! A blade-wielding psychopath is on the loose, turning The Big Apple bright red with the blood of beautiful young women. As NYPD detective Fred Williams (Hedley, "For Your Eyes Only") follows the trail of butchery from the decks of the Staten Island Ferry to the sex shows of Times Square, each brutal murder becomes a sadistic taunt. In the city that never sleeps, the hunt is on for the killer that can't be stopped! Co-written and directed by acclaimed horror maestro Lucio Fulci

("Zombie", "City of the Living Dead") and filmed on location in the mean streets of New York City, this is one of Fulci's most savage and controversial thrillers. Now Blue Underground is proud to present THE NEW YORK RIPPER in a new 4K restoration from its original camera negative, completely uncut and uncensored, and fully loaded with exclusive new Extras! BONUS: NEW! Audio Commentary with Troy Howarth, Author of "Splintered Visions: Lucio Fulci and His Films," The Art

Of Killing: Interview with Co-Writer Dardano Sacchetti, Three Fingers Of Violence: Interview with Star Howard Ross, The Second Victim: Interview with Co-Star Cinzia de Ponti, The Broken Bottle Murder: Interview with Co-Star Zora Kerova and "I'm an Actress!": 2009 Interview with Co-Star Zora Kerova! Neat 2-D Lenticular slipcover plus THE NEW YORK RIPPER: Original Motion Picture Soundtrack CD by Francesco De Masi and a Collectable Booklet with new essay by Travis Crawford.

Heroes Shed No Tears

Strap in for a 2K Digital Restoration of director John Woo's Explosive precursor to his breakout film, A Better Tomorrow, as the refurbished epic Heroes Shed No Tears (Film Movement Blu-ray) comes to town. The Thai government hires a group of Chinese mercenaries to capture a powerful drug lord from the Golden Triangle. The mercenaries manage to capture the drug lord, but soon find themselves pursued by his forces, and the forces of a bitter Thai officer. The Chinese mercenaries are vastly outnumbered, and as their numbers begin to dwindle, their desperation pulls them into a corner as their enemies close in on them. Bonus Features include interview with star Eddy Ko and new essay by author, film programmer, and Asian film expert, Grady Hendrix. "Review-John Woo's first contemporary action film is an entertaining bloodbath... --TV Guide!" The film may be over 30 years old but the carnage is still unflinching and mounted with viscous verve. From bloody squibs, burnings and beheadings, Heroes Shed No Tears holds nothing back in its onslaught of impressively staged combat. "One would be doing themselves an injustice in not checking out this early, but highly entertaining action flick from the director. --Andrew Skeates, Far East Films!"

A Better World Starts Here: Activist and Their Work

Who is the activist in your group? Good or Bad, read all about it in Stacy Russo's book "A Better World Starts Here: Activist and Their Work" (Sanctuary Publishers). Activists and Their Work (Paperback) presents the stories of activists contributing towards the common good within their communities and beyond in a commitment to eradicate various forms of injustice and oppression. This is a book of struggle but also a book of hope, joy, and liberation. Essential reading for anyone wishing to find empowerment and guidance, the stories of activists such as Michelle Carrera (Chilis on Wheels), activist poet Judy Grahn, Sarah Rafael Garcia (Barrio Writers), vegan and ecofeminist writer Carol J. Adams, feminist anthropologist Ruth Behar, Sonya Renee Taylor (The Body is Not an Apology), Kamek Brown (Farm Sanctuary), Steve Bell (Prison Library Project), Bamby Salcedo (TransLatin@ Coalition) and many others will inspire, support, and ultimately, provide promise for a better world for all readers -whether new or seasoned to activism. Check it out, maybe send a copy to the disoriented Mayor of New Orleans, an activist with NO PURPOSE!
