Television Reviews: Portlandia Season 1 (2011) - By Jason S. Lockard

Posted on Tuesday, January 03, 2012 @ 14:53:32 Mountain Standard Time by Duane

I recently received the new MVD release of the complete first season of the IFC's comedy Portlandia. This 2010 series from co-creators and stars

SNL's Fred Armisen and musician/actress Carrie Brownstein takes a dreamy and absurd look at life in Portland, Oregon.

For those that are not familiar with this series. It is a sketch comedy series of sorts, featuring recurring characters including an organic farmer/cult leader; members of an adult hide and seek league, owners of a feminist book store; a militant bike messenger; and an artsy couple who attach cut-outs of birds to everything.

This offbeat comedy series is not for everyone. In fact I found myself not laughing to much at the comedy; though the last episode was the best of the six so that gives me hope for season two to be better! Fans of 'SNL' or 'Kids in the Hall' would more than likely revel in this series.

Now for The DVD itself it features six pristinely transferred season one episodes complete with bonus features including blooper reels, extended scenes, deleted scenes, videos of Fred Armisen speaking
