

BLACK LIGHTNING: THE COMPLETE FIRST SEASON (Blu-ray)
Warner Bros. Home Ent. + DC Ent. + Berlanti Productions

As principal of a high school in a neighborhood overrun by gang violence, Jefferson Pierce is a pillar of his community. Nine years ago, Pierce was a hero of a different sort. Gifted with the power to harness electricity, he kept Freeland safe as the masked vigilante Black Lightning. After seeing the damage this inflicted upon his family, Pierce retired his Super Hero persona in order to be there for his daughters, Anissa and Jennifer, though his marriage to their mother, Lynn, suffered. Almost a decade later, Pierce's crime-fighting days are over ... or so he thinks. When a menacing local gang, the One Hundred, targets his loved ones, Black Lightning charges into action to protect his family, and save the soul of Freeland. Feel the heat of this electrifying Super Hero in 13 high-voltage new adventures!

ISMAEL'S GHOST (DVD)
Magnolia Home Ent.

Twenty-one years ago she ran away. And twenty-one years later, Carlotta is back from the void. But Ismael has been busy rebuilding a life for himself with Sylvia and working on his next feature film. As Ismael's trials and tribulations unfurl, so too do those of this film's protagonist, the idle, funny and reckless diplomat, Ivan Dédalus. The character is a nod to the ghost of another of Desplechin's creations, the brother of Paul Dédalus. A film within a film — and then some, Desplechin layers narrative upon narrative. With Ismael's Ghosts, Desplechin returns once more to the past, creating film after film as his way of stepping back in time, and proving yet again that his brand of genius lies in his ability to find light in the darkest of places.

DON'T GROW UP (DVD)
Shudder

A group of teenage delinquents living in a youth center wake up to find themselves all alone with no one to watch over them. The teens celebrate their newfound freedom by partying, playing loud music and visualizing a life without guardians. After the excitement fades, they decide to leave the group home for good. Upon arriving in the nearby town, they find the streets deserted and in a post-apocalyptic state. The few adults they do encounter all seem to be infected by a mysterious epidemic, making them blood-thirsty and psychotic. In order to survive, they will have to band together and find a route to safety.

THE FRENCH WAY (Blu-ray)
Sprocket Vault + MVDVisual

The incomparable Josephine Baker dances and sings her way through a thought-lost French classic, The French Way. Born into poverty, Baker rose from a childhood living in a St. Louis slum to the toast of France — captivating audiences through the stage, recordings and motion pictures, and you can see why in this video, set in contemporary WWII France, about young lovers forbidden to marry by their respective families. Baker, as "Zazu," the owner of a nightclub, inherits a job restoring harmony between the two families and allowing the young lovers to marry. French character actors add to the fun, but when Josephine's on the screen, she is as Ernest Hemingway once said, "the most sensational woman anyone ever saw." The French Way filmed in 1940, was released in France in 1945, and briefly shown in the USA in 1952 with some changes.

BLUE DESERT (DVD)
IndiePlex Films

In an age devoid of memory, truth, religion, and sports, a young man named Ele, guided by intuitions and dreams, goes off in search of the meaning of life and existence. Revelations and mysterious symbols arise on his path through which he comes to encounter his soul mate in the Blue Desert. With plot points based on Yoko Ono's first art book, Grapefruit (which inspired John Lennon to write "Imagine"), this visually stunning sci-fi tale, set in the distant future against the bold architecture of futurist Oscar Niemeyer's Brasilia, offers a dreamy take on new age spirituality and the physical realm.

ROWAN & MARTIN'S LAUGH-IN: THE COMPLETE FIFTH SEASON (DVD)
TimeLife

The '60s gave us "in-crowds," "be-ins" and "love-ins," and starting in 1968, the happening place for free-form comedy was Rowan & Martin's Laugh-In, broadcast from beautiful downtown Burbank. Straight man Dan Rowan and wisecracking co-host Dick Martin, led a gaggle of goofballs through a rapid-fire assault of one-liners, skits and bits and non sequiturs that left viewers in hysterics and disbelief. Anything and anyone in the public eye was a target. The show anchored the Monday night time slot on NBC until March 1973. After years of shameless name dropping, Dick finally gets his wish when Raquel Welch kicks off Season 5 with her first and only appearance on the show. Former Hogan's Heroes POWs Richard Dawson and Larry Hovis escape CBS to join the cast. They, along with alumni Judy Carne, Arte Johnson, Henry Gibson, Jo Anne Worley, and Teresa Graves, help celebrate Laugh-In's 100th episode.

MODERN LIFE IS RUBBISH (DVD)
Cleopatra + MVDVisual

A British drama starring Josh Whitehouse and Freya Mavor, Modern Life Is Rubbish, featuring selected songs by bands from the '80s and '90s, on its soundtrack, including Radiohead, Stereophonics, The 1975, The Vaccines, The Smiths, Oasis, Warpaint, The Libertines and MT Wolf. Brought together by their shared love of music, ten years later, Liam (Whitehouse) and Natalie (Mavor) are at breaking point. In their case opposites attract but don't necessarily work long-term. Making the difficult decision to separate, they must split their prized music library. But the sound track that defined their relationship keeps pulling them back together.

IS IT TIME FOR ELECTED SCHOOL BOARD?

Mayor Marty Walsh recently named Laura Perille as Interim Boston School Superintendent and she was seemingly rubber stamped by the appointed Boston School Committee. The Mayor's decision has been criticized by many for lack of any community input.

Tanisha Sullivan the president of the Boston NAACP chapter wants the city to reconsider the current structure of the school committee, especially in light of the way Perille got selected and appointed. I believe it might be time to restore an elected school committee where the actual stakeholders have a real say in the way the school system operates and the way the system's leaders are picked. Are the many concerns of parents being heard today or are they just bystanders? Parents and taxpayers of Boston are not being truly represented today. We should think of electing school committee members again. Things can only improve and, remember, the education of our children should always be the first concern.

MAYOR SAYS HIS AND CITY COUNCIL RAISES WORTH IT

The raises the mayor is defending for himself and councilors seem a bit steep to me. Listening to the mayor, one would think he's worth every penny. There's got to be a better way to handle raises for elected office holders. Some may view these big raises as meeting market value but I think, in this case, the market maybe overvalued. So are the raises worth it and long overdue or not? RACING AND FOOD TRUCK FESTIVALS
