From MVD and Cherry Red comes I'M NO ANGEL featuring a sweet live performance by one of rock's greats. Here's a new volume for Allman fans, and for those who haven't dived into post Duane Allman music, here's a chance to see Gregg going at it strong in the late 80s after the carrying on of The Allman Brothers Band as well as Gregg's solo career. The concert was recorded in Nashville and boasts a nice selection of tracks, including the titular "I'm No Angel", of course, as well as the no doubt fan-expected "Statesboro Blues." Covering Blind Willie McTell's classic tune has been a staple of Allman sets for a long time. And for those who have been fans of the Allmans for a long time – or those who need to learn about the Allman journey after Duane's passing away – this is the DVD for you.
