

The Frank Sinatra Show: High Hopes

I have to admit – I do get a kick out of seeing "star" shows from the '50s – the kind of shows that spotlighted a single performer doing what they do, along with their "friends." Case in point is a series of variety shows sponsored by Timex in 1957, starring Frank Sinatra. One of these, guest-starring Dean Martin & Bing Crosby, is presented on The Frank Sinatra Show: High Hopes (MVD, Not Rated, DVD-$14.95 SRP), 60 minutes worth of time capsule performances (plus the original ads!).

<http://filmforce.ign.com/articles/662/662326p1.html>