FRANK SINATRA SHOW/High Hopes: These old Sinatra shows for Time were a gas. Primitive tv that was overcome by guest like Dean Martin and Bing Crosby with support from Mitzi Gaynor and Jimmy Durante no wonder people were so fascinated with early television. Sinatra and the crew knew how to deliver an hour to your living room. Everyone of the performances is one of the classics, the pairings often are inspired even when there was backstage tension and all Sinatra fans, especially the uber fans, are sure to have a fun time with this look back at footage pulled from the archival kinescopes.

The perfect Xmas gift to the Sinatra fan on your list.
