

THE SWEET 'GLITZ, BLITZ AND HITZ DVD'

(WIENERWORLD/MUSIC VIDEO DISTRIBUTORS)

One of the most important Glamrockband ever has yet another DVD out, but happily not a simple put together hits only DVD! This new DVD contains a very interesting 92 minutes counting documentary of THE SWEET, in which we can not only see rare footage from the 1970s of their hits, but also in-depth interviews with former managers and bandmembers (such as the bandleader ANDY SCOTT). It is very nice to finally have a real good documentary of one of the most important Glamrockbands ever, because how many times have their songs been covered by the 80s Hair Metal bands (especially "Action", "Fox on the run", "Ballroom blitz", "Love is like Oxygen", "Set me free", etc. etc.) whom were all influenced by THE SWEET. KROKUS, MOTLEY CRUE and DEF LEPPARD all would have sounded different if THE SWEET had not been there. They were one of the first bands in the UK with big shows, glitter and glamour and real tough Glamrock that almost sounded Metalish in the mid 1970. Must-have DVD for any Glamrockfan this wonderful documentary on THE SWEET, which is available through: <http://www.musicvideodistributors.com>
