Video Archive for the Ages, Vol. 1 (DVD)

American Music Press magazine has released a pretty excellent video collection in "Video Archive for the Ages, Vol. 1." The DVD features some great up and coming bands like The Explosion, Heaven Shall Burn, and A Wilhelm Scream as well as to hot to touch bands like Shadow's Fall, Unearth, and Everytime I Die. Throw in a few heavyweights like Converge, Agnostic Front, and Converge and you couldn't ask for a better DVD of videos you'll probably never get to see anywhere else.

The videos here are all pretty good quality for the most part. Everytime I Die's "Ebolarama" and Converge's "Eagles Become Vultures" are probably the highlights on the DVD (and oddly enough appear back to back). Heaven Shall Burn The Start, and Shadow's Fall are all cool too. Really there's not a bad quality video in the bunch.

You can't go wrong with this if you like videos. Screw MTV2 and Fuse, give us more of these and then we can watch the videos we want whenever and whoever many times we want!
