New York Dolls' 'All Dolled Up' DVD set for release

Contributed by inagreendase, Posted by aubin on Wednesday, September 28, 2005 at 12:29:39 PM (EDT)

Proto-punk act, The New York Dolls, who recently reunited on the urging of Morrissey, will soon release the DVD All Dolled Up on December 6, 2005 through Music Video Distributors.

The label describes the disc:

In the early 70's, Rock photographer Bob Gruen and his wife Nadya purchased a portable video recorder. In a period of three years, they shot over 40 hours of New York Dolls footage. Now for the first time ever, this footage is unveiled. The feature length documentary follows the band from their early performances in New York at such clubs as Kenny's Castaways, and Max's Kansas City. It also documents their West Coast tour and includes footage from the Whisky-A-Go-Go, the Real Don Steele Show, Rodney Bingenheimer's E Club, and more. Inter cut with revealing interviews, backstage banter, and late night debauchery,

The band recently signed to Roadrunner Records. The proto-punk act will soon begin work on a new full length with an expected 2006 release date.

I'm with the other guys, this looks really cool. Has anyone seen the documentary about Arthur Kane? I heard it's real good and I might go see a screening of it.
