What the press have said:

"One of the great things about this DVD is you get to watch so many of the Doll's best songs performed in their entirety in rough, poor conditions, playing simple songs of hard power chords and vocals that were yelled, but never sung - the way god intended it to be. It may be only one camera and one shot, but who needs all the star wipes and fancy effects when you've got the raw rock and roll of the New York Dolls." Chris Gersbach - Aust. Guitar Magazine

"In the history of rock music, The New York Dolls were one of the most influential,' 'So this new DVD-' 'is like discovering a lost treasure.' 'All Dolled Up is pure fan heaven.'" - Erin Free Filmlink Magazine.

'Part-glam, part-punk, part booze blues, the Dolls challenged sexual conventions, to become the link between glam and punk. there are plenty of awesome live performances,' 'It's not pretty, but it's compulsive viewing.'" - Peter Ryan MAG

'The New York Dolls were essentially a trashy garage band but somehow they managed to transcend their roots and become cult figures, influencing future punks like Ramones, The Clash, and the Sex Pistols.' 'The songs are all here,"and seeing them performed live helps us understand why the band was so revered.' - Suzy Ramone dB Magazine

"All Dolled Up is a must for everyone who wants a peak into the antics of a band whose legacy could not be eradicated by moral guardians or even those eager to see what the true essence of rock 'n' roll is." - Bronius Zumeris, Beat Magazine (Feb '06)

"An exhilarating encapsulation of a group at their chaotic and beatific peak" MOJO JAN 06

'A "Personality Crisis" worth having. As the key link between glam and punk, the New York Dolls were true weirdos in their movement.' 3 1/2 Stars P.R - Rolling Stone

"...the real fun is in the songs – hard rockin' slabs of joy such as Jet Boy, Personality Crisis and Pills, which have become classics to those in the know." QLD Pride

"All Dolled Up is a flawless piece of cinematography, a bird's eye view of life and music within and without the New York Dolls. In it's rawness and simplicity - especially with it's black and white format - it superbly captures the innocence, the real energy and the primal spirit that drove the New York Dolls' debauched rock and roll." - Joe Matera - Rock Journalist

"the live footage of the band performing in theatres and dingy bars is great, their 'evil hookers' image and three-chord snarl in full flight: they'd still be a dangerous, outrageous band if they emerged today." - Matt Throver Rave Mag

IN THE EARLY '70S , Rock photographer Bob Gruen and his wife Nadya purchased a portable Video Recorder. In a period of three years they shot over 40 hours of New York Dolls footage. Now for the first time ever this footage is unveiled.

This feature length documentary captures the band during early performances in New York at Kenny's Castaways and Max's Kansas City, then follows the Dolls on their tour of the West Coast, including footage from the Whisky A Go Go, the Real Don Steele Show, Rodney Bingenheimer's E Club and much more. Intercut with revealing interviews, backstage banter and late night debauchery, this is THE definitive document of the New York Dolls.
