G.G. ALLIN- TERROR IN AMERICA: LIVE 1993- MVD- If you never had a chance to see GG Allin live then you really missed out on quite a treat. I didn't see him until 1991 and the gig I saw was pretty tame (by GG's standards anyway- I had a chance to see him on New Years Eve 1987 in Philly and I blew it). This is 3 gigs from his last tour and while there's a minimum of defecation there's a maximum of blood. How this guy lasted as long as he did beating the shit out of his body is anyone's guess but he did it for many years. Many people are shocked when you say you're excited to watch something like this but I look at it as nothing more than a freak show. See GG berate audience members, see GG bloody himself up, see GG stick microphones up his ass. You get the picture. Extras include seeing GG get a tattoo, plus an instore in Hollywood and at Dony Fury's studio. (www.musicvideodistributors.com)
