NOFX

Never Trust A Hippy (Fat)

Thing is, NOFX will be going to hell for this EP. 6 new tunes, 2 of which will be on their new record Wolves In Wolves' Clothing.

Stiff Little Fingers

Handheld and Rigidly Digital (MVD)

"The Hope St. tour (in '98) was among the most successful we have undertaken in recent years and I don't just mean from the point of view of attendance, although those were encouragingly up as well. What happened was everyone played better, laughed more, and generally had more fun on the road than we'd had in ages." - Jake Burns

Ani DiFranco

Carnegie Hall 4.6.02 (Righteous Babe)

A live recording of Ani's solo performance on April 6, 2002 at Carnegie Hall. Her charismatic humor, eloquence and compassion are unmistakable in this politically relevant, sonically scintillating set of songs. For the first time, Ani recites the epic poem "Self Evident" to an audience of New Yorkers, which she describes as "one of the most intense moments I have ever experienced on stage."

Sham 69

Hersham Boys (MVD)

Sham 69 was the original voice of the people in the first wave of British punk. They enjoyed a long run of chart successes and were an immense influence on the street punk and Oi! movements which followed. This 21-song set from in Brighton, England in 2002 brilliantly displays their signature straight-up punk and sing-along slogan sound.

Danko Jones

Sleep is the Enemy (Razor & Tie)

Danko Jones, the loudest, proudest, suavest, sexiest, heaviest, heartiest power trio in the world, has returned with a new album, Sleep is the Enemy, in stores on May 23rd. Includes "First Date" and "Baby Hates Me" (as heard on WWE's Wrestlemania 22). They rock.

Ministry

Rio Grande Blood (13th Planet)

With Rio Grande Blood, Ministry's chief executive madman Al Jourgensen harnesses bunker-busting guitar missiles, drums which pummel like carpet bombs and audio samples ripped from today's headlines promulgating the grim reality of the State of the Union.
