INDUSTRY NEWS

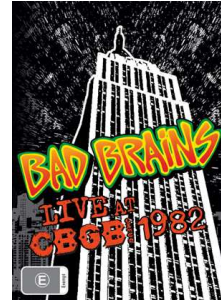

... The original line-up of Dinosaur Jr. are to release their first album of new material since 1989. However, bassist Lou Barlow, formerly of Sebadoh and The Folk Implosion, believes it will be a one off. Recorded at guitarist J Mascis' home studio in Amherst, Massachusetts, the currently untitled album will be released in 2007.

... Elvis Presley's appearances on "The Ed Sullivan Show" will be chronicled on a 3-disc DVD set "Elvis Presley: The Sullivan Shows." To be released end of November, the Andrew Solt-produced collection features all three shows on which the King performed in their entirety, including appearances by other guests and the original commercial breaks.

... A new Prince track, "Song of the Heart," will be found on the soundtrack to the upcoming animated film "Happy Feet." The cut, which features slap bass, piano and horns, was written specifically by Prince for the film, which boasts the voice talents of Elijah Wood, Nicole Kidman, Hugh Jackman and Robin Williams.

Artist: Bad Brains

Title: Live At CBGB 1982

Distributor: MRA Entertainment (MRA)

Release Date: 02/10/06

Catalogue # D0906

This breathtaking performance displays why Bad Brains became one of the most important bands in the history of American Hardcore. On Christmas Eve 1982, Bad Brains began their three-day stint at a Hardcore Festival hosted by legendary CBGB. This DVD represents the very best of these shows, culled from over 4 hours of footage. Their live performances were legendary, their visual recordings were impossible to find. Now, for the first time on DVD, that powerful performance is revisited in extraordinary fashion.

Tracks

Big Take Over, Attitude, I, Supertouch/shfit, King of Glory, Right Brigade, F.V.K., Banned in DC, How Low Can a Punk Get, The Meek, Riot Squad, We Will Not, Coptic Times, At the Movies, Rally Round Jah Throne, Redbone in the City, Pay to Cum

Title: Punk In England
Distributor: MRA Entertainment (MRA)
Release Date: 02/10/06
Catalogue # D0834

Following on from the Award Winning 'Punk in London', comes the post-punk apocalypse – 'Punk in England.' The second part in Wolfgang Buld's Trilogy records the movement of punk into the suburbs and its creative explosion into the new wave, ska, mod and rude boy music. This is not a new, retrospective film: it is punk's adrenalin rush into a brave new world as it actually happened in the late 70's. Featuring performances from 'The Clash', 'The Pretenders', 'Madness' and much, much more this is a must see for fans of punk both new and old. Special Features: Rare interviews with Bob Geldof, The Jam, The Selecter, Madness and Joe Strummer. Wolfgang Buld's Documentary Women in Rock - including performances and interviews with 'Siouxsie Sioux', 'The Slits' and 'Girlschool'.

The Nirvana concert film "Live! Tonight! Sold Out!" will make its DVD debut in November. Originally issued on VHS in 1994, the release was conceived by Kurt Cobain as a way to anthologise Nirvana's quick ascent to rock superstardom but was not completed until after his 1994 suicide.
