Legendary punk icons GBH are finally immortalized on dvd, & I have to tell you that this DVD is quite impressive! It captures the power & fury that GBH express in their live shows, & there's NO overdubs, no cutting..it's all live & in your face! When you watch this dvd, you realize just how much a band like Rancid really owe's GBH..they created an angry, yet sing-able form of punk that has more piss & vinegar than expired apple juice, & it also has an alluring sound to it that's very appealing! "Gunned Down" is the song that really blew me away..it has this strong dynamic, that is pretty typical for punk rock, but it's just a very strong & bold expression by GBH & I think it's one of the best songs on this DVD! There are NO ballads here, no "new Punk" cries...this is the old-school, pure, angry stuff that was created as a way to piss of society, & the bonus stuff on the dvd is pretty interesting too, although the interview segment is a little long for my personal taste.
