On November 9, CMJ and Music Video Distributors will present the New York premier screening of the controversial Pixies documentary, loudQUIETloud. The movie, which chronicles the band's recent reunion tour, has been criticized by Frank Black, but nonetheless contains exclusive interviews, behind-the-scenes footage and live performances. The event, which will also feature giveaways courtesy of MVD, takes place this Thursday, November 9, at Brooklyn's Glass Lands Gallery (289 Kent St., between S. 1 and S. 2 Streets in Williamsburg). For more information, visit www.cmj.com/pixies.pdf or www.mvdvisual.com. To see a trailer, visit files.dvdnote.com/pixiestrailer.htm. Oh, and rumor has it heavenly monkeys will be providing free popcorn.
