Pixies - loudQUIETloud: A Film About the Pixies (MVDVisual). 5 ribs-though does leave a bad taste in the mouth.

“I don’t even feel like we broke up.” Charles Thompson aka Frank Black aka Black Francis says about the Pixies on this documentary about the band. When the Pixies broke up in 1992 due to serious tension between Thompson and Kim Deal, their fans were dismayed. When they reunited in 2004, those same fans and many more answered back in a big way, which is encapsulated in the DVD. loudQUIETloud follows the rehearsals and the warm up shows for the full-fledged, sold out reunion tour. It also catalogs the less glamorous side of the touring band lifestyle, getting as close to this enigmatic act as anyone is ever likely to get. Song Titles include: Where Is My Mind?, Hey, Here Comes Your Man, Umass, Caribou, Gouge Away, Nimrod's Son, In Heaven, Wave Of Mutilation, Something Against You, Bone Machine, Cactus, Vamos, Monkey Gone To Heaven and Iris. The Dvd shows all the ugliness between the members, though answers many questions and is a must have for fans. Will Jordan
