

Music Picks - November 2, 2006

Music Picks

by Jamie Gadette

Monday 11.6

THE PIXIES: LOUD QUIET LOUD

The Pixies recently announced plans to record new material in an effort to dodge a trip through the county-fair circuit. Why stay together just to perform the same hits over and over ad nauseam? Until then, relive the (recent) glory days via a free MVD/Big E's/SLUG screening of LoudQuietLoud, a documentary whose name refers to the Boston quartet's influential approach to songs. The film captures Frank Black, Kim Deal, Joey Santiago and David Loverling on their 2004 reunion tour, with all the tension, fighting, laughter and music that followed onstage and off. The group's volatile chemistry strangely mirrors their aural ups and downs, which of course makes for compelling footage. But personal drama can't trump the thrill of watching Deal's giant grin as she plays, reminding us why they got together in the first place. Brewvies, 677 S. 200 West, 9 p.m. Free. Info: Brewvies.com.