

THE MURDER JUNKIES- 'EUROPEAN INVASION 2005' DVD

It's a real fuckin shame that GG never made it over to Europe, I mean it was obviously never going to happen but fuck would that have been something...but, the next best thing fuckin did!! The Murder Junkies finally made it over here at the end of 2005 for a month-long tour to wreak their havoc on European crowds in 8 countries. The crowds are wild and you can feel the enthusiasm and excitement...this shit was a long time coming and the eagerness just seeps through the screen. Exciting stuff for sure. The footage is taken from a number of different shows on the tour and spliced together into a 'compilation' and the energy and drive is awesome, this is a full-on attack from the start and the shows are wild. Not wild in the GG sense of wild, because his replacement, the contemporary Murder Junkies vocalist, JB Beverly is sure as shit not a carbon-copy on the Outlaw Scumfuc and rightly so, no-one can replace a one-off and who the fuck could possibly fill GG shoes? Of course the music must continue but to mimic would be a farce so JB is the most-recent Murder Junkies vocalist who took the stand with grace and dignity and picked up the torch and the music carries on surviving without raping any ghosts. Everybody knows he's not GG as well as he does and there's a lot of style in his presence and delivery and fans respect that and you can see just how much they take to him in these shows. The sets are filled with GG classics and original Murder Junkies cuts from when GG was around up 'til their newer material and includes, 'Bite It Youe Scum', 'Die When You Die', 'Drink Fight and Fuck', 'Raw, Brutak, Rough and Bloody', 'Outlaw Scumfuc', 'Feed My Sleaze', 'Cunt Sucking Cannibal', 'Highest Power', 'I Kill Everything I Fuck', 'Mad Man's Head' and more. It really is non-stop chaos from the get go. The extra material consists of a GG spoken word performance in Allston, MA from 1989 and it's the same one that's in the 'Hated' documentary but filmed on a camcorder so it's different angles and it's un-edited and it's way more outta control than how it appears in 'Hated' and it's a classic GG assault with abuse, blood, violence and danger, GG is fuckin angry here, unpredictable and very offensive and that's GG!!! Through and through!! It's a cool piece of bonus material and you just have to include some GG in a Murder Junkies DVD even if it's after his time!!! This is yet another important release in the MVD GG Allin series...this man and his music just wasn't represented well enough until this series came out and now MVD have released 4 GG (and GG-related) DVD's! This needs to be seen! The kids need to see and hear some real rock 'n' roll, some danger and excitement!!!

MVD Visual
www.mvdvisual.com