The Puppet Monster Massacre

Muppets get slaughtered in this entertaining and goofy homage to 1980s monster films. Again we have a new take on old standard. A bunch of young muppets are challenged to spend a night in the spooky old mansion in their town. Inside, they find that the home's owner, a mad scientist, has a monster in his basement, and plans for the doomed teens to be its first meal.

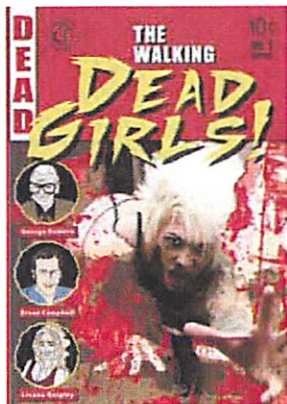

This movie is destined to be a classic, offering as much wit as fake blood. The jokes aren't overdone, it is after all supposed to be a horror movie. The CGI produced background scenery often has the look and feel of a video game. But the muppets are live action, just like on Sesame Street. The music in this movie rocks. This movie must have been a blast to make.

The Puppet Monster Massacre won the Best Animated Film award at the 2011 Motor City Nightmares Film Festival.

The Walking Dead Girls

If you like zombies and scantily clad hot women, then this is the perfect movie for you. Actually this is a documentary of sorts. It's sort of a behind the scenes look at our culture's fascination with zombies. The focus here is on zombie bimboes, better known as "zimboes." The film includes interviews with zombie guru George Romero, and cult movie star Bruce Campbell. There is also a look at the making of a zombie pinup calendar.

Psycho Holocaust

This is a gorefest, plain and simple. If you like seeing people maimed, this is your flick. The movie uses the standard horror movie slasher plot of young adults camping in the remote forest. They pick the wrong place to camp, and find themselves being systematically hunted by crazed blood thirsty killers. This film contains some of the most gruesome images you'll likely ever see. And it's in color!

The Lone Ranger's Last Request

The Lone Ranger was ambushed and captured by an enemy Indian War Party. The Indian Chief proclaims, "So, YOU are the great Lone Ranger" ... "In honour of the Harvest Festival, YOU will be executed in three days."

"Before I kill you, I grant you three requests" "What is your FIRST request???" The Lone Ranger responds, "I'd like to speak to my horse."

The Chief nods and Silver is brought before the Lone Ranger who whispers in Silver's ear, and the horse gallops away.

Later that evening, Silver returns with a beautiful blonde woman on his back. As the Indian Chief watches, the blonde enters the Lone Ranger's tent and spends the night.

The next morning the Indian Chief admits he's impressed. "You have a very fine and loyal horse", "But I will still kill you in two days." "What is your SECOND request???"

The Lone Ranger again asks to speak to his horse. Silver is brought to him, and he again whispers in the horse's ear. As before, Silver takes off and disappears over the horizon.

Later that evening, to the Chief's surprise, Silver again returns, this time with a voluptuous brunette, more attractive than the blonde. She enters the Lone Ranger's tent and spends the night.

The following morning the Indian Chief is again impressed. "You are indeed a man of many talents," "But I will still kill you tomorrow."

"What is your LAST request???" The Lone Ranger responds, "I'd like to speak to my horse, alone."

The Chief is curious, but he agrees, and Silver is brought to the Lone Ranger's tent. Once they're alone, the Lone Ranger grabs Silver by both ears, looks him square in the eye and says, "READ MY LIPS!!!!" FOR... THE... LAST... TIME... "BRING POSSE" !!!
