

About Heroes

---

DVD Review: Big Foot

Posted on March 15, 2012 by Dennis

Cheezy/MVD

Director: Robert F. Slatzer

Writers: Robert F. Slatzer

Stars: John Carradine, Joi Lansing and Judy Jordache
(From imdb.com)

What they say: America's abominable snowman (our very own Spider-Ben)! Starring John Carradine

Bigfoot is real and hunters are out to get him in the movie. John Carradine. The idea of capturing the gigantic "King of the Mountain" for a profitable public exhibition show fills the hunters' hearts. Bigfoot disappears and is thought to be captured by Bigfoot. Hip college students and a woman's disappearance and all set out to search for the missing woman.

What I say: In this hilarious take of the Bigfoot legend John Carradine plays a hunter with a group of bikers to capture Bigfoot and rescue some damsels in distress. It's a fun movie with women to keep the Bigfoot dynasty going.

Everyone in the film is awful, and the Bigfoot suits are a joke but I laughed myself silly at the craziness. It's exactly what you think it is and if you are child of the 70's and 80's this is a fun trip down memory lane.

Picture quality is atrocious, but that's not the point. There are also drive-in inter those were an awesome stroll down memory lane as well. This is a budget releas they say you get what you pay for.

Film: 7/10

DVD: 7/10

Share this:  Facebook Print

This entry was posted in Horror, Movies, Reviews and tagged bigfoot. Bookmark the permalink.

---

About Heroes has been published at <http://aboutheroes.com> since December 14, 2005.

Version 3.0 launched September 27, 2010.

About Heroes is licensed under a Creative Commons License, which means you can reuse our ori and only if you're not selling it. All characters, unless otherwise specified, are © of their owners, w

Proudly powered by WordPress.

Switch to our mobile site