Why do we fear those that are different?

The Museum of Wonders is about the owner of a circus who is a dwarf, Marcel that falls in love with the wrong woman. Salome is a beautiful dancer and when she hears that Marcel have received a sizable inheritance she agrees to marry him.

Now Marcel is so much in love with Salome that he doesn't see her evil ways. Salome has plans for her new husband, which involves stealing his inheritance by having him killed so she can take the money and run off with her lover, strong man Sansone.

Fortunately Marcel and other members of the circus find out about Salone's plans before it is too late. They all get together and come up with a plan of their own for some sweet, yet brutal revenge.
