

SPOKANARCHY - Where Were You In '82?: This is a great DVD regarding the highs and lows of the Spokane (Washington) scene in the early 80's. Bands featured include Vampire Lezbos, Sweet Madness, TFL and Social Bondage. It's a great view to see how others created a scene and identity in their own way and without compromise. In other words punk rock at it's best. There's also extra footage which includes two films. One of those films is 'Go Fuck Yourself' which is banned from You Tube. Other bonus material includes a flyers and zines slide show and the original production trailer. Certainly a DVD worth tracking down. 8/10
