

Zombie Babies

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 2012 AT 10:15PM

Zombie Babies is about 2 hillbilly rednecks, that run an illegal abortion clinic in a Hotel/Casino.

Their practice is extremely low budget, as their surgery tools consists of only a coathanger. On paper this could be entertaining, but in reality, not so much. The story starts off with four couples going in for abortions at the same time, but with only 3 going all the way through with it. Since it is a hotel, the guests stick around and eventually get picked off by mutant babies. Zombie Babies is full of bad acting, 2nd rate jokes and really poor special effects. I like a good B flick, just like the next guy, but this one got hard to watch.

Bottom Line: Gore, goobs and boredom sum this one up. A horror flick with a decent idea, but not excecuted well at all. If you're going to watch this one, make sure you have lots of booze.

-Ragman had to nudge himself a few times during this one.

<http://therighttorock.com/journal/2012/11/13/zombie-babies.html>