I'm Now: The Story of Mudhoney
to be released on DVD February 19

King of Hearts Productions will release the long-awaited, much-anticipated, documentary film I'M NOW: The Story of Mudhoney.

I'M NOW follows Mudhoney's 25-year career, from their early beginnings in the Pacific Northwest through the band's most recent world tour.

Complete with testimonials from friends, music industry veterans, and musicians such as Pearl Jam's Stone Gossard & Jeff Ament, Sonic Youth's Thurston Moore & Kim Gordon, Soundgarden's Kim Thayil, Bob Pop's Jonathan Poneman, and the band themselves, the film is the ultimate document of one of the world's most influential and beloved rock bands.

The film was directed by Ryan Short and Adam Pease.

"I'm Now is like Citizen Kane, but with more Grunge!"

by Ryan Short (director / producer)

4.5 of 5 Stars - Film Threat

"Fast, funny, sad, and ultimately, really inspiring" - Susie Tennant

3.5 out of 4 stars - Seattle Times

"Highly recommended" - The Stranger
