TOULOUSE ENGELHARDT "Toulousology" - MVD is handling distribution on Toulousology, subtitled Definitive Guitar Soli 1976 - 2009. Toulouse Engelhardt has a long standing history as a guitar based instrumental music trendsetter who is sometimes mentioned in the same breath along with acoustic guitar legends such as his one time Takoma Records label mates John Fahey and Leo Kottke. Described by some as the "Segovia of Surf", Engelhardt mixes acoustic guitars the way Neil Young writes songs—full of intertwining, cinematic sounding guitar instrumentals that combine for a wall of sound that engulfs you. Released on his own Lost Grove Arts label, Toulousology features an entertaining compilation of various Engelhardt tracks recorded between 1976 and 2009. Excellent sound, CD cover art and concept helps to make Toulousology a winning collection of instrumental guitar magic. www.ToulouseMusic.com
