FLOTSAM AND JETSAM/Cuatro (Metal Mind Productions) This I don't remember the 1st time around, but this is a little gem here. This is some prime thrash and the tunes just kicked my ass. This might not be the fastest or the most heavy, but the tunes have some awesome riffs and the singer is top notch of this. The tunes flow rather well and the music still sounds fresh and I can't believe I missed this the 1st time around. You also get 4 bonus tracks and a video to boot. If you don't have this, you need this in your collection. Info:
