This is probably the most popular, at least in terms of sales, of the releases from Flotsam & Jetsam, & this is the post Jason Newsted era of the band...on this release, there's songs written by Chris Cornell & David Ellefson from Megadeth, & it features 2 songs that got heavy rotation on the old MTV Headbanger's Ball.. "Swatting At Flies", which has the great line, "The Only Thing I Ever Made in My Life was a Fist!" & "Wading Through The Darkness" which is actually the band's biggest commercial single EVER! This re-issue features a handful of bonus cuts & the sound is amazing on this re-issued, digipack that's limited to 2,000 copies worldwide! Flotsam & Jetsam was a thrash band that kinda crossed over at some point & stripped some of their heavier, early sounds & went with a more polished, standard "Metal" sound over time. As a great bonus, the video for "Wading Through The Darkness" is included on this cd!
