

by Chris Forbes

CHRONICAL DIARRHOEA/The Last Judgement/Salomo Says (Metal Mind Productions) Oh was this a pleasant surprise. This is this bands 2 albums and an EP all wrapped into one nice CD. This came out in the late 80's early 90's and is some killer crossover in the vein of DRI, Agnostic Front, The Cromags, etc., 50 tunes of some crushing metalcore (pun indented) the way it should be played not this happy core shit. This band was the real deal and I had never heard of them, but now I am glad I did. Horns up big time for Metal Mind putting this out. The perfect blend of metal and hardcore. Info:

www.metalmind.com.pl or www.mvdb2b.com