

FROM NOWHERE/Agony (MVD Audio) This was some OK heavy metal mixed in with some thrash metal at times. The band just didn't blow me away as I thought the riffs on this were just average at best. The vocals are just growled and screamed and I wasn't feeling his vocals much neither. The songs were just flat to a point and just didn't click with me much. The band doesn't suck, but I just didn't hear that killer riff or song structure to knock me off my feet. Info:
