Review: Lance Lopez – Handmade Music

Posted on: Thursday, Mar 29, 2012

(MIG Music)

Now firmly at the top of the blues rock tree, here is a superb new album from Louisiana-born, Texas-raised guitarist Lance Lopez, a fine follow-up to the acclaimed “Salvation From Sundown”, and again recorded at the famous Ardent Studios in Memphis, and has legendary producer Jim Gaines at the controls – who has previously worked with Stevie Ray Vaughan, George Thorogood and Santana.
