

VISIT: WALDO COUNTY

Also just released in the same series is “Michael Schenker Group: Rockpalast” (MIG DVD, 64 min.). Guitarist Schenker first found fame with the German band Scorpions and then UFO, but left the latter to form his own group, which is captured live Jan. 24, 1981 at the Markthalle in Hamburg, Germany. This night, the band performs almost all of its debut album (and almost in the same running order). They also cover two UFO songs, “Doctor Doctor” and “Rock Bottom.” The other release is “Charlie Daniels Band: Live at Rockpalast” (MIG DVD, 76 min.). Here, Daniels and band -- a lineup of two drum sets, bass, keyboard and two guitars -- plays all its greatest hits, including “Legend of Wooley Swamp,” “Devil Went Down to Georgia” and “The South’s Gonna Do It Again. The show closes with an 8:45-long version of “Orange Blossom Special. The show was recorded Nov. 28, 1980 at Westfalenhalle in Dortmund, Germany.
